

Take different payment interfaces having different payment systems and different transactional behaviours exposed by banks and unify them.
Standardisation of the process by government.

